

Financing International Transactions

This course focuses on the fundamental decisions of multinational firms in financing international acquisitions, investments, and restructurings. Topics to be discussed in class include, but are not limited to: finance vehicles for cross-border mergers and acquisitions, valuation of cross-border investments, debt and equity financing options, financial distress restructuring, foreign exchange risk management, hedging transactions, and financing options as they relate to stock and asset acquisitions.