

criticalstrategicsolutions

the entrepreneur and business management centre

International Business Law

This course focuses on problems dealt with by private entities engaged in international transactions, as well as specific issues of international trade regulation specific to certain transactions. Specific areas to be discussed in class are antitrust law, conflict of laws, international arbitration and dispute resolution, international public and international private law, and the application of international treaties versus domestic law.