

criticalstrategicsolutions the entrepreneur and business management centre

International Corporate Policy

The primary objective of this course is to understand how management can set the stage for effective organizational performance through high-performance work practices and financial performance, as well as an analysis of management performance as a factor in ROI (Return On Investment). As we will discover, corporate policy and attitudes on human capital or human resource management are a key component in delivering strong financial and strategic success.